

Free services available:

Mediation

private in our comfortable offices or online

Conciliation

mediator acts as a “go-between”

Conflict Exploration

thinking through the best approach to a conflict

Restorative Justice

repairing harm

Get in touch!

This project is supported by Grant No. 15PBJA-24-GG-00236-BRND awarded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance. The Bureau of Justice Assistance is a component of the Department of Justice's Office of Justice Programs, which also includes the Bureau of Justice Statistics, the National Institute of Justice, the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, the Office for Victims of Crime and the SMART Office. Points of view or opinions in this document are those of the author and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Partners include Virginia Tech's Center for Peace Studies and Violence Prevention and participating law enforcement agencies.

This is an equal opportunity (EO) project that does not discriminate on the basis of disability or any other protected class of person. EO complaints please contact info@resolutionvirginia.org or director@nvms.us.

Got conflict?

Get help... for free.

Everyone has conflict...

with family, neighbors, co-workers and businesses.

Common conflicts

- Parking
- Property
- Pets
- Noise
- Family
- Youth
- Housing
- Contracts

How to get help

Local law enforcement referred you to mediation services.

Contact the community mediation center on the back of this brochure or someone from the center will contact you.

Why get help

- to create a lasting solution that each person can live with
- to repair a relationship (or at least not make it worse)
- to keep the situation from escalating

Who can help

Trained mediators from your community mediation center can help you create workable solutions to conflicts for free when referred by local law enforcement.

